

Inclusion of Diverse Participants in Pragmatic Clinical Trials

A GRAND ROUNDS WORKSHOP SERIES

Join us for the NIH Collaboratory's special Grand Rounds series focused on the inclusion of diverse participants in pragmatic clinical trials. These webinar sessions on Fridays at 1 p.m. ET will provide insights about planning for diversity, engaging participants, learning from implementation science to maximize diversity, and developing a pipeline of diverse investigators. The special Grand Rounds series will conclude with a podcast discussion from a panel of experts.
